

Singapore Update

It is great to be ministering this weekend in Singapore at City Harvest Church. I was here in Singapore with the people of God from Trinity Christian Centre in 2004 for a series of meetings. The last time I was with City Harvest was in 1998. Since that time the church has exploded to over 20,000 members and 27,000 in attendance at the weekend meetings. It is a blessing to see a mega-church so actively involved in reaching out to the community, the marketplace, and the nations.

Please join in the services with me at the churches' live webcast at www.chc.org.sg. In the US, they are available 12-13 hours behind the Singapore service times which are Sat.3:30pm, and 5:30pm, and Sun. 10:00 am and 12:30 pm.
